

"Unbinding Your Soul" in January

Want to take a next step in exploring your spirituality?

Want to take Covenant for a "Test Drive" to see if you'd like to spend more time here?

Come join an "Unbinding Your Soul" small group in January!

This is an "Open House" 3-week experience where there's no expectation or commitment to stick around and doubts and questions are welcome. We are learning together - everyone from pastors to skeptics - to take the next step on our journeys.

When: 21 days in January (Jan. 6 - Jan 27)

What: 4 Weekly hour-long discussions in a safe environment and daily experiments with prayer

How Much: $10 for the book, now available in the church office

Who: Age appropriate groups are available for children, youth and adults

Select Group Times

Sundays

9:45 - 10:45AM in the Church

- 6 open groups for adults

- Children's groups for all ages with fun interactive curriculum

5:00PM in Madison

- A home group designed to build friendships for those living in Madison. Contact Kerry Rowley (256) 679-4622

Tuesdays

- Women's evening home group. Contact Frieda Howell (256) 337-7924

Wednesdays

2:00PM at Covenant

- All adults welcome, led by Lana Stapler

6:00PM at Covenant

- All adults welcome, led by David Kling

- Children's programming for all ages

- Middle school group

7:30PM at church

- High school group

Thursdays

9:30AM at Covenant

- Women's group, led by Alice Searcy

1:15PM at Covenant

- Preschool Teacher and Mom's Group, led by Pam Holmes (Childcare provided)

Don't see a group that fits you? Have a question? Call David Kling at 941-961-0121.